Reserving Space

San Damiano welcomes both new groups and old friends. Our mission is to provide a peaceful environment of natural beauty for retreats and workshops.

We recommend that you call as soon as you begin to plan an event, as we are often booked a year or more in advance. Weekends book quickly, and your needs may be more easily met if you can schedule your event on a weekday--Monday through Friday.

To check availability, please provide:

- Name of your group
- Contact person & phone number
- Number of people attending
- Dates requested
- Meeting room/bedroom needs

Once dates have been chosen, a contract outlining the agreed upon details is sent to the contact person to review, sign and return with a 30% deposit. We also require a Certificate of Insurance naming San Damiano Retreat as the Certificate Holder and Named Insured for the period you are here.

Thank you for considering San Damiano Retreat.
