

DISCOVERING THE SACREDNESS

OF CREATION

SUNDAY, AUGUST 27, 2017

Creation itself calls us into dialogue with the Sacred. The more we become attuned to this Mystery, the closer we come to knowing God, ourselves and others.

Teilhard de Chardin, in the early 1900's, was the first to bring our attention to the sacredness of creation. One of his many quotes is "Not only is the universe sacred, it holds within itself the magnetism of unity."

Using all our senses, we will explore God's Word living and alive among us, through prayer, reflection, sharing, movement and art.

PRESENTERS:

Kathy Miranda, MA has been a spiritual director for 17 years and received her formation at Mercy Center, Burlingame. Though Catholic, she enjoys working with people of all traditions. After receiving a masters degree in Transpersonal Studies, a focus of Kathy's has been the blend of spirituality and creativity. Adding to this over 25 years of work in Pastoral Ministry, healing and wholeness are at the heart of what she offers. She often incorporates use of images, Soul Collage and Mandala work.

Susan Caldera, MA is an educator and spiritual companion. She received her Masters Degree in Culture and Spirituality from Holy Names University in 1985 and continues to do intensive work in her own personal journey. Over the years Susan has explored a variety of spiritual practices to listen and companion with others on this sacred path. Her practice focuses on the process of integration dynamics of the whole person. She has created and facilitated retreats, workshops and seminars to help individuals become more aware of their body, to trust their intuitive knowing, and to come home to their deepest self.
