

Muslims and Christians:

Knowing Ourselves by Knowing the Other

An ongoing gathering of people from these two faiths gathering to learn, pray, sing, chant, reflect, and share.

In this day, we will continue our series and explore our understandings of Pilgrimage

Presenters from the two traditions will include:

Dr. Nazeer Ahmed

Rev. Alexis Easton

Dr. Rania Awaad

Rev. Kamal Hassan

Fr. Tom Bonacci, cp

Br. Mike Minton, ofm

July 29, 2017 from 9:30 to 4:30

Note this is Saturday, not Sunday

Muslim Community Center of the East Bay
5724 W. Las Positas Blvd, Pleasanton 94588
Cost: $25/person (includes lunch & snacks)
Please register at <http://mccceastbay.org>

As a general practice, long sleeves and long pants are encouraged. Scarfs are not required but if you'd like to pray along side the Muslim women, then bring one.

Quotes from previous retreats:

"It keeps unfolding and I am so grateful."

"...every moment was meaningful & feeling cleansed now that it's over."

"Beautiful! A privilege! Superb. Keep up these retreats!"