

5-DAY SILENT CONTEMPLATIVE RETREAT

“The World Will Be Saved By Beauty”

Presented by Fr. Dan Riley, OFM

JULY 22 - 27, 2018

Finding healing and wholeness in the cosmic Christ while on the path with Francis and Clare of Assisi, Thomas Merton, Annie Dillard and others journeying with “the multi-faced beautiful.”

PRESENTER:

Fr. Dan Riley, OFM, a native of Rochester, New York, entered the Franciscan Friars after studies in biology at St. Bonaventure University. His reading of Thomas Merton's early books continued to inspire him to form new models of life in the Church. As a Friar, most of his life has been spent in the spiritual formation of youth and retreat ministry among religious and laity both nationally and internationally. A founding member of Mt. Irenaeus, Franciscan Mountain Retreat, he and his brothers live a contemplative life in the foothills of the Allegheny mountains. It is a lovely wooded setting where solitude and community life continue to find an active rapport that supports many women and men who are seeking peace and who are looking for ways to “join with Jesus Christ in making all things new.”
