

SILENT CONTEMPLATIVE RETREAT

“The Gift Of A Moment”

Presented by Sr. Ishpriya

June 3-8, 2018

The poet R. Tagore captures the essence of any Retreat time of Silence and Stillness in his poem.

“I ask for the Gift of a moment to sit by your side...”

You are invited to leave aside the pressure of everyday life, let the work you have to do be finished later and be spiritually re-energised by the “Gift of a moment” alone with God.

PRESENTER:

Sr. Ishpriya was born in England and is a member of an international Catholic religious congregation, the Society of the Sacred Heart. She left Europe for India in 1971 and since 1974 she has lived in the foothills of the Himalayas, a Christian presence among Hindu Sanyasis, and is committed to Inter-faith dialogue in a spirit of mutual understanding and common search. During these years, she developed the International Satsangs and Seminars in many countries across all 5 continents. She holds a Doctorate in Psychology from the University of London and brings insights from East and West. People seek her compassion and perceptive spiritual guidance from all over the world.
