

CIRCLE OF COMPASSION

Offered By Kathy Miranda, MA

Meet 2nd Tuesday Of Each Month:

January to December 2019

As a follow up to our Book Series on Joyce Rupp's book Boundless Compassion, we will be forming a Circle of Compassion. The purpose is as follows:

- To nurture the bonds of kinship among those who value compassion
- To be re-inspired to engage with life passionately and to deepen one's understanding and knowledge of compassion
- To reflect on how one is living in a compassionate manner

To do this, we will meet monthly for 2 - 2 1/2 hours for prayer, reflection, sharing and referring to new resources on the theme of compassion. At times, we will add the component of Creative Response.

To participate in this Circle, you have to have participated in the book series or at least read the book Boundless Compassion.

Joyce Rupp was generous enough to give me a list of resources she has used, her format, and Parker Palmer's Circle of Trust Touchstones which consists of guidelines for deep listening, responding with respect for all, and the invitation to listen to our Inner self/teacher.

These guidelines will be given out at our first gathering on November 13th from 10:00 am until 12:30 pm. Lunch is offered for $15 and it is asked that you contact Kateri if you want to stay for lunch. The fee for each Circle gathering is $20 per person.

To register, contact Kateri at katerik@sandamiano.org or call or text her at 925-785-9850.

For more information or details, contact Kathy Miranda at katesloan7@comcast.net
