

You Are Wonderfully Made:

Welcome and Respect for Transgender Individuals and Their Families

Presented by Deacon Raymond Dever
June 5-7, 2020

The goal of this retreat program will be to reflect on how transgender people and their families can and should be welcomed by the faith community. The program will include opportunities to reflect on the experience of being transgender or of having a loved one who is transgender, will share information on gender identity and development, and will reflect on the spiritual aspects of transgender identity and acceptance. The program will include presentations, small group discussions, and time and space for reflection, all in a safe and inclusive environment.

PRESENTER:

Deacon Ray Dever is a devout Catholic, a permanent deacon, a husband, and above all, a dad to three daughters. He serves pastorally at St. Paul Parish, Tampa, Florida. In a US Catholic article May 13, 2018, he writes on his experience as both a Catholic deacon and a proud dad to a transgender daughter. Deacon Ray's participated in the closing Mass of the World Meeting of Families. This is a great testimony to all the prayers and work that parents of LGBT people have performed in the Church over decades.
